

GUIDING LIGHTS

Illuminate Your Home and Garden for Drama and Safety

By James Watson

To enhance its proximity to Biscayne Bay, the owner of this 1953 single-story house planned a major renovation that included new lighting. Saving two walls of the existing structure, the new facade was perforated with numerous windows to strengthen the indoor-outdoor relationship.